Joyce Messina

Painting challenges my creativity, I am always learning. I describe my style as Impressionism with a touch of Realism. The process is capturing the moment with my camera before I memorize it in watercolors. Born and raised in Miami, I love the ocean and the Oregon Coast has inspired many pairings. Over the past 15 years my paintings have been displayed in the Gallery at Michelbook, The Art Walk, Cornerstone Coffee, City Hall, Hillside Manor and numerous private homes. My paintings have received awards and ribbons from Yamhill County Fair and the Yamhill County Historical Society. I have studied with Pat Barrett, the late Irilla Swanson, and the West Los Angeles City and Chemeketa Community Colleges.
